Foreword

"Meanwhile some homage to the High Commissioner
Who first assigned these frequencies to earth,
Who marked these air lanes out.
He is the same Who fixed the stars in place.
Who set a fire the sun and froze the moon and dug the furrows
wherein oceans flow,
Who put some molecules together in a way
To make a man.

Here is a thought to fasten to your throat:
Who knows who may be listening?
And where?"

Dedication

We would like to dedicate our annual this year to Edward Bresse, Connie (Hiles) Stuckey and Charlie Shobe who have reached their greatest goal . . . a place with God. Our class knows that words are sometimes meaningless, but we wish the book to stand as a living memorial to their lives of service.

Appreciation

We would like to extend our sincere appreciation to our parents, the teachers, and Mrs. Sarka who have helped us through our school and daily life during our school years. Their guidance and assurance have helped us achieve a higher goal. We would like to say, "Thank you for making us understand."

Social Problems
Commercial Law
To thy own self be true, and,
it must follow as the day follows the night
Thou canst not then be false to any man.

Dependency is one of the strongest bonds of society. No man, however wealthy, is independent of everyone. The influence of his parents, his fellow students, his teachers and his church can never be subtracted nor eradicated from his life. You have, however, reached an age when you must of necessity accept a more independent position in life, but you still are dependent upon other men for your needs. Treat all men kindly, benevolently, and above all with charity.

Those who are successful have a goal set just high enough to be reached. A goal set too high brings frustration and unhappiness to oneself. The successful person is one whose work benefits and improves mankind. The world is in great need for those who will give their lives and talents to the improving of the mental, physical, and spiritual needs of man. We hope each graduate of the class of 1957 has a worthwhile goal set and it will be one that will aid other men to live better lives and at the same time bring to each one a good remuneration for his service.

Words from the pens of great men

Temperance puts wood on the fire, meal in the barrel, flour in the tub, money in the purse, credit in the country, contentment in the house, clothes on the children, vigor in the body, intelligence in the brain, and spirit in the whole constitution.

Benjamin Franklin

If Temperance prevails, then education can prevail; If Temperance fails, then education must fail.

Horace Mann

Though I look old yet I am strong and lusty, for in my youth I never did apply hot and rebellious liquors in my blood.

William Shakespeare

The barroom as a bank: You deposit your money--and lose it; your character--and lose it; your time--and lose it; your manly independence--and lose it; your home comfort--and lose it; your children's happiness--and lose it; your own soul--and lose it.

Every moderate drinker could abandon the intoxicating cup, if he would; every inebriate would if he could.

J. B. Cough

Who hath woe? Who hath sorrow? Who hath contentions? Who hath babbling? Who hath wounds without cause? Who hath redness of eyes? They that tarry long at the wine.

Proverbs 23:29,30

The junior class consisting of thirty-four boys and twenty-three girls was glad this year to welcome Betty Baker from Van Wert.

The class play, "Dark Mountain," given on November 16th, was interesting and entertaining. But perhaps one of the most important events of the year was the Prom at which the juniors had a program and reception for the seniors.

At the close of school the class journeyed to Dayton to visit the National Cash Register (where they ate their lunch), Wright's Monument, Fort Ancient, and Deed's Memorial Park.

The juniors would like to express their appreciation to those who helped them have a wonderful and successful year.

Sophomore Class

OFFICERS: President, Jim Krendl; Vice President, Susan Sawmiller; Secretary-Treasurer, Jan Miller; Student Council, Ronnie Lytle, Sandra Turner.

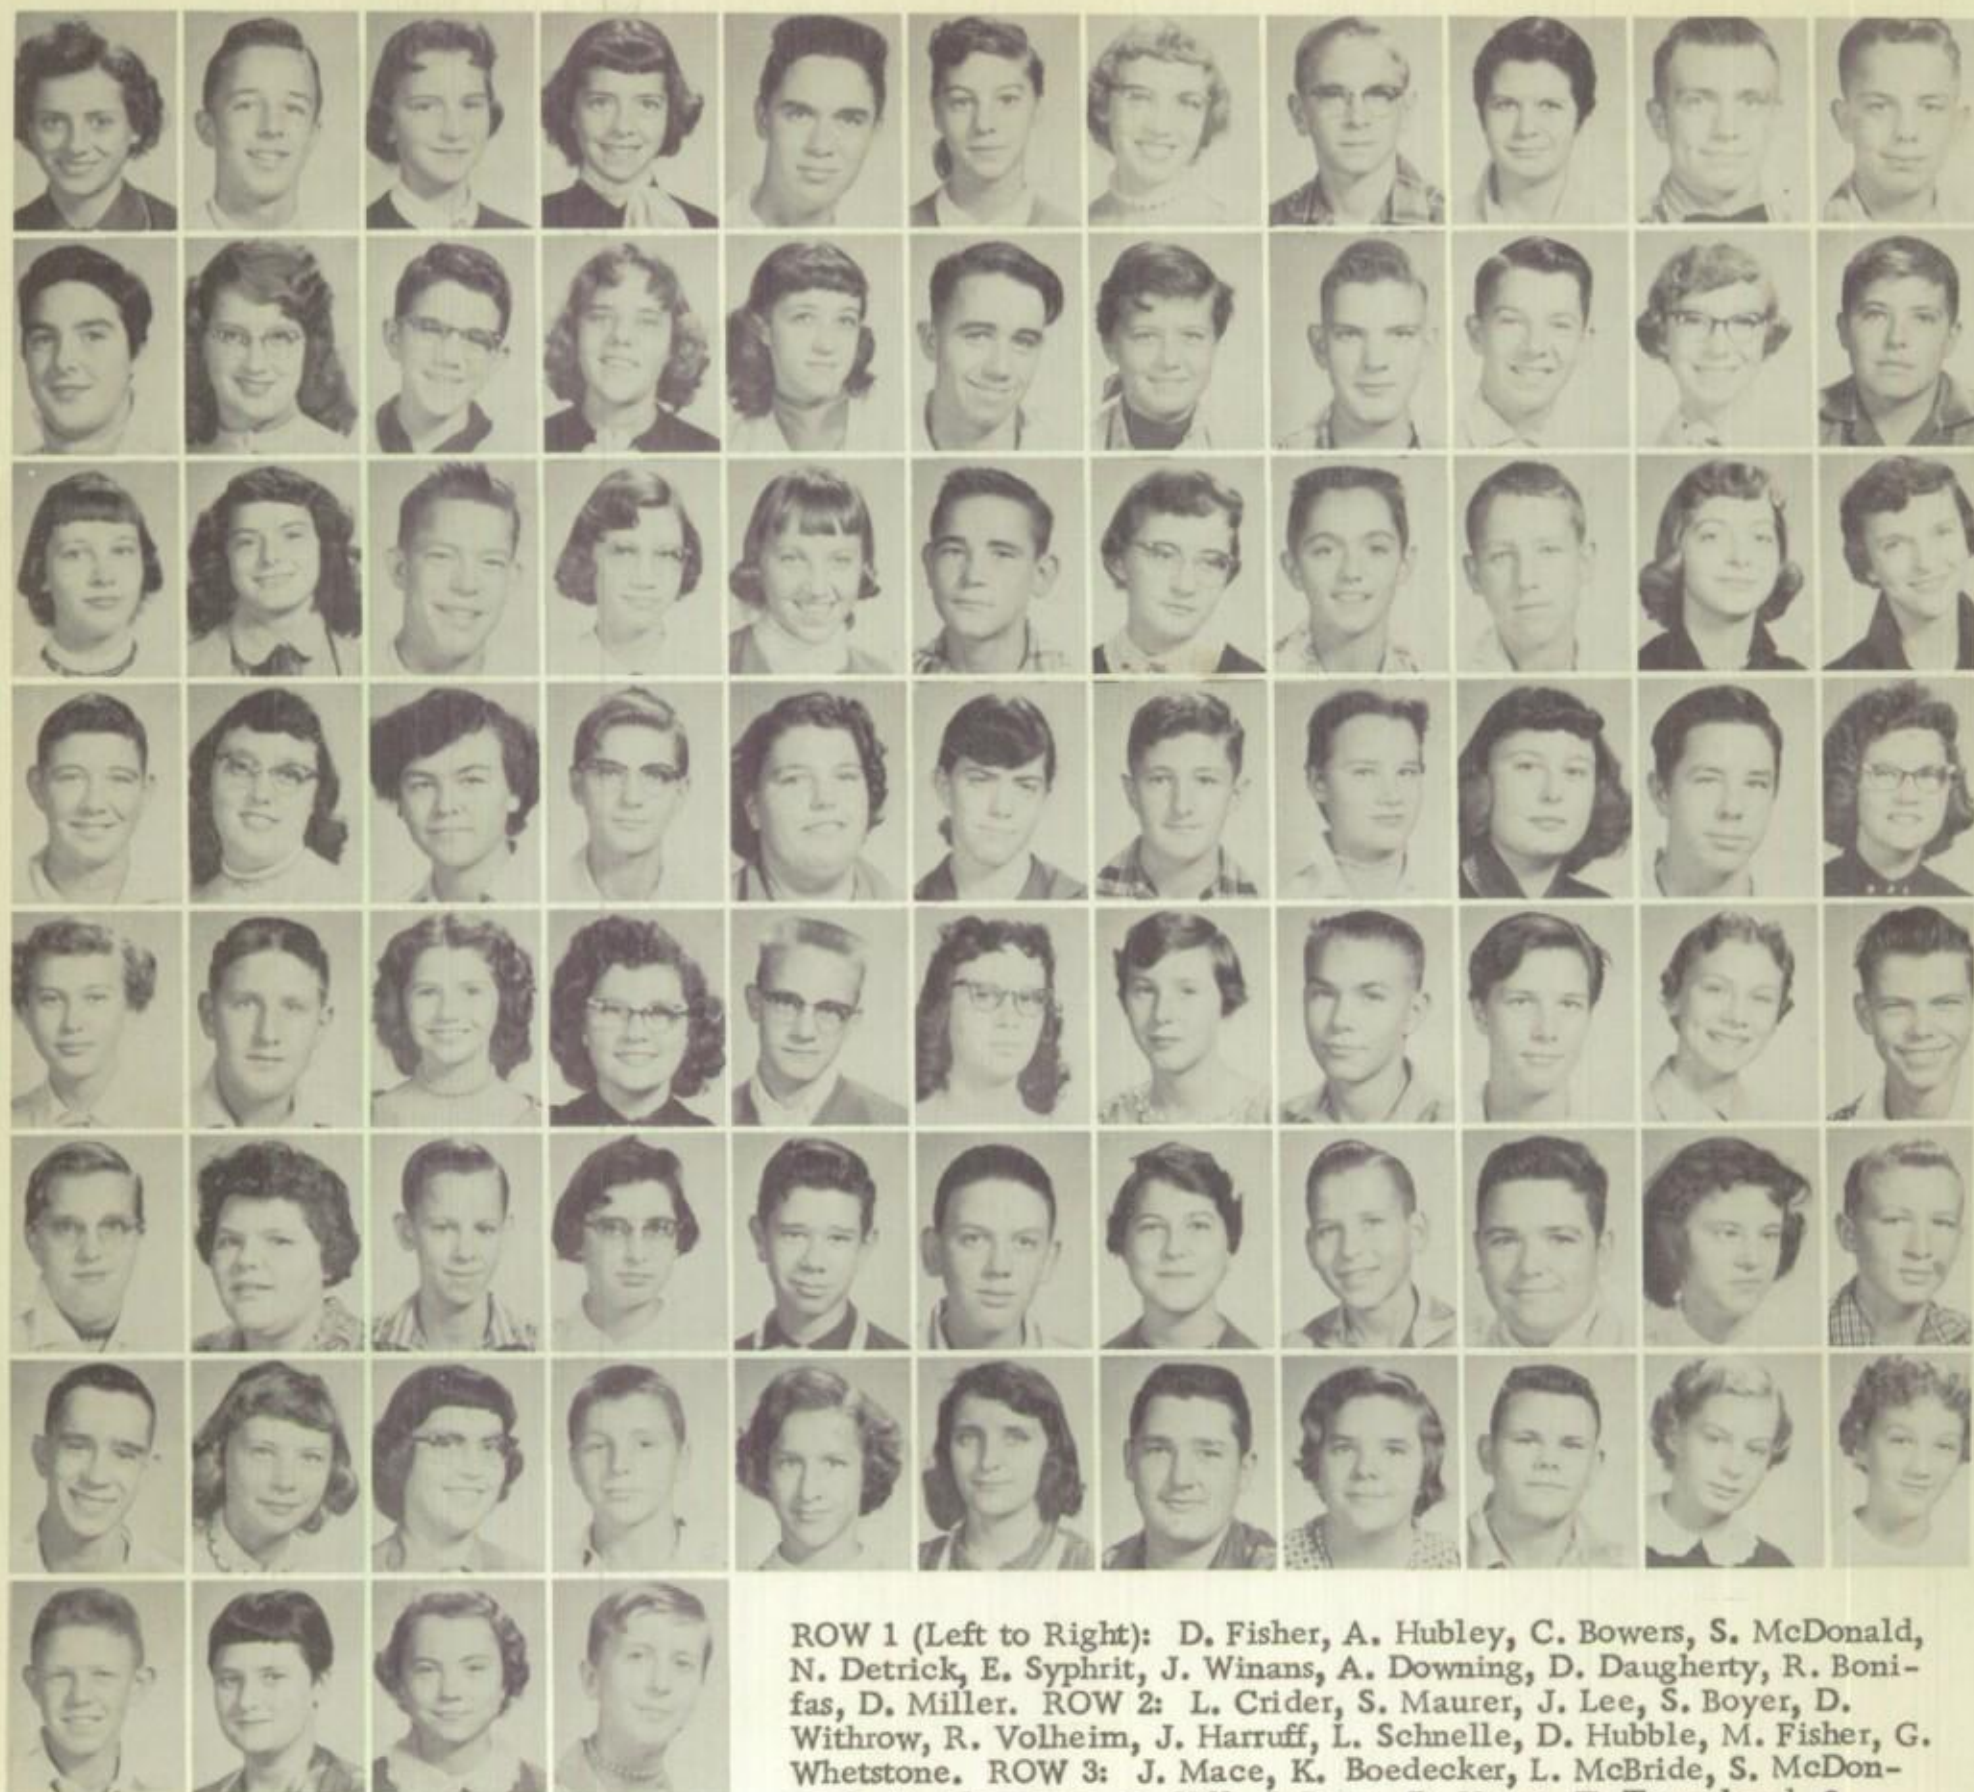

This year the sophomore class had two exciting events. The first was their magazine sale totaling $1207.75.

In the spring was their trip to Cincinnati. The class visited the zoo, the Observatory Gardens, and the Ohio River.

The class would like to express its sincere thanks to their sponsors—Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Shaffer and Mr. Brookhart. Without their guidance the year would not have been a success.

HOMECOMING QUEEN
 Goldie Daniels
 Senior

The Homecoming of 1956, sponsored by the GAA, followed a Chinese theme. Queen Goldie and her court were honored at the football game with front row seats. At the half the band, starting the procession with "Pomp and Circumstance", put on its weekly show.

At the program in the midst of the decorations portraying a Chinese garden, Queen Goldie was officially crowned by Co-Captains Terry Crider and Stanley Schwartz.

Kindergarten

A song and the salute to the flag begin an exciting day in the kindergarten.

Everyone enjoys coloring, cutting-out, and pasting the pictures in keeping with the season.

In game time the boys and girls learn to play together and to cooperate in group activities.

Everyone looks forward to the rest period, for soon after Mrs. Branstetter reads stories the children like to hear.

Student Council

Our student council met for one period each month with Miss Deemer and Mr. Fisher.

This year our student council worked hard so it could better our school for everyone and our coming generations. In the fall they had a big bonfire to brighten our spirits in football. A new cheerleader was added for our basketball. Monitors served to keep the heavy traffic out of the halls.

To the council our sincere thanks for lending a helping hand!

Latin Club

The Latin Club met monthly with a business meeting followed by eats and recreation.

There was a spring banquet attended by all the members, who were dressed as old Latinians. Sophomore "slaves", who plan to join the club next year, did the serving.

A formal candlelight initiation was held for those who planned to join the club. Along with this the pupils were told to wear Latin attire and be in command of the Senior Latin students the following day at school.

The club wishes to express its sincere appreciation to Miss Pearl Fritz, the advisor, for the kind help and guidance through the year.

The Future Homemakers of America held their meetings the second Monday of each month under the supervision of Miss Strahl, the home economics teacher.

The four main events of the year were the county rally, a bake sale, the Christmas party, and the Mother-Daughter banquet, which was held in the spring.

All the members of the FHA wish to thank Miss Strahl for her guidance and assistance during the whole year.

Monitors

The monitor group had as its duty to keep a businesslike, but friendly attitude in the halls of the high school building. Young folks enjoy a wholesome place in which to work and live.

An outstanding accomplishment of the past year's activities was Hugh Seibert's receiving the coveted American Farmer Degree. State Farmer awards went to Sam Blythe, Tom McPheron and Dwain Welford. Ed Whetstone won the district public speaking contest and placed a silver rating in the State contest. Seven members and the advisor attended the National FFA Convention in Kansas City. In the parliamentary procedure contest, the Junior team won a gold rating and the senior team a silver rating. Many of the boys showed their projects at various fairs during the summer.

The Future Business Leaders of America, Chapter 714, was organized to create a better understanding between the school and the business people of the community by working together to help the students themselves more fully for a useful place in the business world. There are thirty-eight members in the club.

Some of the activities in which the club participated this year were dances after the football and basketball games sale of Christmas cards, operation of a book store at school and attendance at the State Convention in Springfield on October 5 and 6. The Club won third place trophy on their exhibit at this convention.

G. A. A.

The GAA Club started the year of 1956-57 with sixty-four active members. At noons the girls enjoyed the intramural sports by which they earned their credits. Through the year the girls worked together on many activities which were planned at monthly meetings. Some of the important events were homecoming, an assembly and the Mother-and-Daughter banquet. The girls wish to express their sincere appreciation to Mrs. Shaffer for her help and guidance through the year.

COOKS

All morning they work to serve our lunch,
To try and please a hungry bunch,
Pleasant and cheerful all the while,
They always greet you with a smile.

JANITORS

They wash the windows and clean the floors,
Oil the hinges on all the doors,
They keep the rooms so spic and span,
Our sincere "thanks" to these three men.

BUS DRIVERS

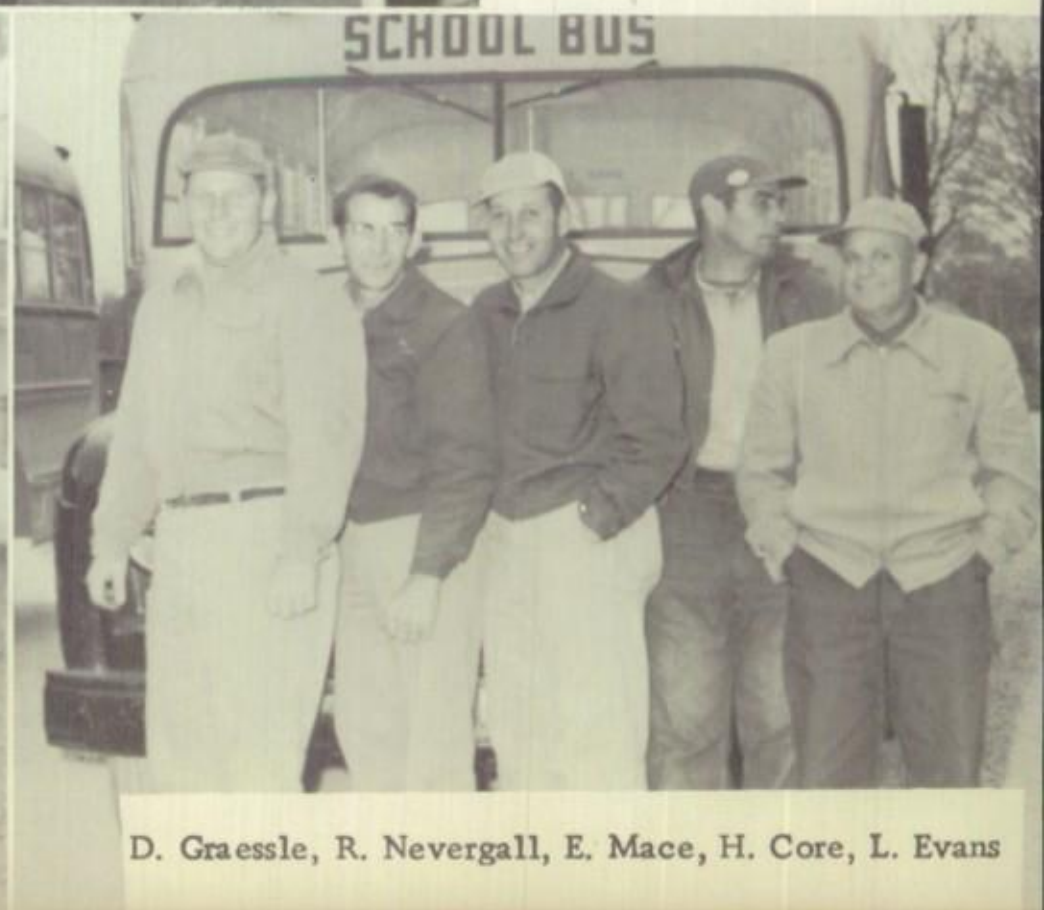

Faithful drivers through thick and thin,
They will always bring the busses in,
They are always pleasant and cheerful too,
They always say hello to you.

To you our sincere appreciation.

JOURNAL NEWS

The Black and White, a section of the Journal News, has been a product of the school students.

Reporters from each of the classes, seven through twelve, and organization reporters contributed weekly their items of interest for the pleasure of everyone. Mr. Bennett of the Journal News talked to the staff about having more student names in the paper. The staff took pictures of the junior and senior class plays, basketball team and coaches. The co-operation of reporters and teachers was greatly appreciated throughout the year.

Mixed Chorus

The Mixed Chorus was a very active group during this year. They helped in the Christmas and Veteran's Day assemblies.

On March 30 the group went to Ada, Ohio to participate in the District Contest which was held at Ohio Northern University. They came back very successful.

The chorus participated in the May concert and Commencement program.

Gratitude is hereby expressed to Mr. Rolfes for his ever ready help.

Spencerville Band

The Spencerville High School Band has sixty-eight members. The nine majorettes added color to the band with their fancy twirling routines.

The band had a busy year. They played for various activities such as: Junior and Senior class plays, football games, assemblies, Peony festival, fairs and their concert in the spring.

They also went to the contest in March. The band had a proud record having received superior ratings in the district and the privilege of going to the State finals seven years straight.

The band members wish to thank Mr. Rolfes for his splendid guidance in the band and contest work.

Parent-Teachers Association

Uncle Orrie and Nosy, the Clown, were the stars of the P.T.A. carnival, which is an event to which everyone looks forward each and every year. The guests were from Station WHIO-TV in Dayton, Ohio. Equipment for the school is bought from the proceeds.

This year a prince and princess from the elementary school reigned over the first program. During the last program a girl from the high school, Barbara Maxwell, was crowned "Queen for the PTA Carnival of 1956".

Editorial

The squad of 1957, although not a victorious ball club, showed enthusiasm. In many respects they showed what perseverance and spirit can do.

The Ball Club would like to thank Mr. Brookhart for his help and guidance through the season.

A feud between the Belsnickles and the Upschlager begins when Ceelie Belsnickle decides she wants to marry "the dude", Ronald Maxwell. In their attempt to capture Ronald, Paw shuts Mrs. Maxwell and Bonnie Mae in the pig pen. The rattlesnakes belonging to Ceelie are turned loose during the feud and Juney Lou "is bitten" by one on her arm. Chiz dresses as a lady cousin in order to save himself but Cousin Zeke falls for him. There is bound to be trouble again! Ceelie is given a second bath for her weddin'. The weddin' begins when the Reverend arrives but instead of Maxwell, Ceelie marries Obeey.
